The BEST MOMENT for me was.... because.... (describe the moment and give reason)

When i notice can i talk in English very well and i can talk an a argument

The best moment was in stresa at lunch time when we were free and i made friends and my little group was formed

See Antonio laughing

When we was to the boat

My best Moment Is: Day at the pool. Becaus i made more Friends free time because I talked to others about this and that

The last day Antonio and Alfredo made me learn how to float in the pool and made me fight my fear of deep water the dinner at vecchia brace because we were all together to talk and laugh

I liked every day but especially the last ones because everyone knew each other much better

When the teachers said us that we had done a good job because It means that has worked well

I can't choose only one because the whole week was great but I think group works like painting, acting and making videos were great to build relationships with others and I really liked the last day at aquam.

The restaurant because almost everybody was there and it was Very funny

Do the activities with all the people and talking with them while we were doing them

Stare con gli altri

Paint together and the boat trip on the lake. Because I think paint together is a good way to to know each other's likes and get to know each other more and the lake to see the landscapes and nature of northern Italy.

Going around Milan

The best Moment for me was meeting our partners in the airport

Pool because it was a moment where we were quite all united the best time was milan, because despite everything, we had a lot of fun

All because Is a goooood experience

The Zumba, because dancing is incredible way to get a positive emotions all together ♥ and also group painting

The dance time in the sport center because it was funny and I enjoyed it with my friends

Being with the family at home was very fun, we talked about the differences between Spain and Italy, and I also had a great time on the trips we took.

the day at the swimming pool because we just spent quality time together, got to know each other a little more than the basics and just had fun

Trip to Milano

At the acquam, because i've never play puddle the best moment was when we all gathered in a circle, because we were all united by a beautiful experience the best moment for me was that day at the pool because we were all together having fun. then I really enjoyed playing padel with no one who spoke Italian... it was quite difficult but also fun
